Dear President,

Prof. Wrong has asked me to write to you about V. Massey. He has just got a 2nd Class, but he was much hampered by having to get up Greek & by having it hanging over him till almost the end. Once free of this, he showed that he was a thoroughly First Class man, & was rapidly getting his work up to that level. As it was, he came near the top of Class II; his Foreign History papers were 1st Class, & many individual answers in the other papers. He writes well & can master thoroughly any subject to which he devotes himself; what particularly struck us was his maturity & soundness of judgment on historical questions. It is interesting that his contemporaries ^{here} noticed this, & put him quite on a level with Massey Wrong, who as you may have heard got the best or one of the two best Firsts this year.

As you know, Murey is a man of strong character, of ideals; he has also displayed great powers of organisation in running Debating Societies &c.

I am delighted to think of him doing teaching work in Canada; he will be a very leading man one day.

- Please remember me kindly to Mrs. Falconer; her your hospitality is a very pleasant memory to me.

one of the two daughters who was with me has just got married, very happily I think ^{it is} to a young Edinburgh advocate & Parliamentary candidate - Prof. Wright's family & himself have been a great pleasure to us this summer

Yours sincerely
